Description of Project:

Girls Lead project aims to provide innovative and flexible ways for young women (15-29) to get involved in entrepreneurial and social learning, enabling them to act as a force for change in their local communities and in wider society, and thus to overcome deprivation, inequality, educational disadvantage and social exclusion. The aim also is to cultivate and enhance youth social thinking, to develop the girls leadership attitudes, business capacity reduce the opportunities available for disadvantaged youth. The project is intended to develop a culture of initiative among young women, to build in their leadership skills and help them to realise their first enterprising ideas
